

Greater Oregon TBF Bylaws

ARTICLE I. Name and Purpose

Section 1: Name

This "The Bass Federation (TBF)" club shall be named and called "Greater Oregon TBF". This organization shall service the active members who join The Bass Federation of Oregon (TBF Oregon) and those who desire to fish club level events.

Section 2: Purpose

The general purpose of the chapter club shall be to facilitate the organized support, protection, education and encouragement of sport-fishing, youth and conservation at all levels and to "partner" with other like minded groups to do the same. More particularly stated, purposes of the club include the following;

- To establish and maintain an organization for the support of sport fishing, and all related recreational and educational fishing, youth and conservation activities conducted in a safe manner.
- To stimulate the public awareness of angling as a major sport. To educate the public upon the positive economic impact of angling at the national, state and local levels.
- To offer our state fish and wildlife agencies our organized, conservation feedback, input, political and legislative support and assistance.
- To support and demand adequate water quality standards, fisheries habitat and fisheries resource management.
- To protect and guard anglers right's and demand unfettered, responsible access to all public waters and facilities, built, supported or otherwise funded in whole or in part by public funds.
- To detect and report polluters or violators of fish and wildlife conservation laws and to expose violators or polluters publicly and focus political or legal attention upon such violations.
- To encourage, facilitate and promote youth fishing activities and education and a love for this great recreation.
- To work to improve our skills as anglers through fellowship and camaraderie of friendly exchange of fishcatching techniques.
- To teach and promote safe boating and on the water practices. Our chapter will function as a dynamic and effective link with our affiliated State Federation and other like-minded groups.

ARTICLE II. Membership Section 1: Minimum Number of Members

The club shall begin with and maintain at a minimum at least six members that are active members of a federated club of 16 years of age or older.

Section 2: Requirement for Regular Club and State (TBF) Membership

To become a chapter club member, a person shall:

- Voluntarily express a true interest in becoming a member and supporting the clubs purpose.
- Become a member of The Bass Federation, Inc. (TBF, Inc) and its home state federation. Become a FLW Member
- Be recommended by two members at a regular monthly meeting.
- Be voted on by membership. Vote shall be by secret ballot.
- Be 16 years of age or older to be in an adult club.

Section 3: Requirements for Individual Junior Membership

To become an individual junior member of an adult club, a person shall:

- Voluntarily express a true interest in becoming a member and supporting the clubs purpose.
- Be less than 18 years of age. *Individual junior members, who are not a member of a junior club, are not required to pay membership dues and are not entitled to the benefits of a regular membership. The inclusion of individual junior members will not affect a club's liability insurance policy. Individual junior members are not covered by the accidental death and dismemberment policy.
- Individual junior members may not hold any office in a regular adult club nor can they be voting members. At age 16, individual junior members may choose to continue membership as an individual junior member or by joining the regular club as a regular member. All individual junior membership ceases on a person's 18th birthday.

Section 4: Membership Dues

The cost for a REGULAR CLUB membership is $60. This $60 is divided between FLW ($35 includes FLW Outdoor Magazine) $15 to The Bass Federation (TBF) and the remaining $10 to Oregon TBF. In order to maintain FLW and TBF membership, dues are to be paid yearly no later than December 1st. This is a requirement to maintain insurance coverage, FLW Outdoor magazine, and other FLW & TBF benefits.

Section 5: Executive Board Meetings

The executive board will meet as needed throughout the year, and will hold a minimum of 2 general meeting open to elected club representatives.
